Summer Raine. The mountain afrenus are allent,
Or whisper frint and low.
The Earth la grateful to the dews
For moisture which the clouds refuse,—
Blow west winds—blow !

And fall, O gentle Rain!
Awake the music of the howers;
Unfold the heavity of the flowers:
The corn field long to hear thy voice,
And woods and orchards will rejoice
To see thee, gentle Rain!

It comes! The gushing wealth descends!

Hark I how it patters on the leaves!

Hark I how it drops from cottage caves.

The pestures and the clouds are friends.

Drop gentle, gentle Raju!

The faining corn-stalks life its head.

The grass grows grooner at thy tread, The woods are musical again !-And from the lill-slile springipg. Down comes the forcent singles, With grateful nature in accord, A full-voiced anthon to the Lord.

York Division - Mr. Baldwin Retires.

Mr. Baldwin has retired from the contest for the York Division of the Lagislatire Council. The fact was definitely announced at the meeting of his Committee last night.

The twenty five or thirty gentlemen who were present as members of the Committee afterwards resolved themselves into a General Committee for the choice of a candidate for the Division. If their reported conversation tilords an index to their views, they will find some defliculty in getting back to unity. Some of them believed that no candidate can prosper without a defined and published policy ; others evidently thank that their approval will chause the success of any body with or without principles. Mr. G. W. Allan was named by Mr. Christopher Robieson in the afternoon; but the night passed without any active in referrence to him.

The gentlemen who deem themselves entitled to determine the choice of the constituency, will perhaps pardon us for reminding them that St. Laurence, will affort them an opportunity popularity of their unseen candidate.
